Senior Client Partner

Jan Vet is Senior Client Partner in Korn/Ferry International's Amsterdam office and has been a member of the Global Financial Practice and the Global Board Practice for the past 21 years.

Mr. Vet focuses on senior-level client work in the financial service and real estate sector. He has conducted numerous executive searches for major corporations worldwide.

Additionally, Mr. Vet executes international search projects for organisations in the non-for-profit sector as well as for family-owned companies, for which he also fulfils advisory roles.

Mr. Vet is a Board Member of the Borneo Initiative (an independent, non-profit organization established in 2008 to promote the responsible management of forests in Indonesia, www.theborneoinitiative.org). He is also on the Board of EMF (the Ecological Management Foundation) (www.emf.nl).

Previously Mr. Vet was based at the Firm's headquarters office in Los Angeles where he worked closely with North American clients with international operations, conducting engagements in Europe, Asia and Latin America.

Before this, Mr. Vet served as assistant to Korn/Ferry's chairman Richard Ferry and participated in international business development and strategic planning initiatives. He oversaw the design and development of the Firm's Global Board Services, a service focusing on board of directors searches.

Mr. Vet has supervised major research studies with the Economist Intelligence Unit and the University of Southern California's Center for Effective Organizations. Early in his career at the Firm, he was a Partner within the Financial Practice in Amsterdam.

Before joining Korn/Ferry in 1992, Mr. Vet held positions with Paribas Capital Markets in London, England, and Rodamco N.V. (part of the Robeco Group) in Rotterdam, the Netherlands, where he managed a global portfolio of real estate equity investments.

Mr. Vet holds a master's degree in finance and real estate investment analysis from the University of Wisconsin at Madison and a bachelor's degree in economics and art history from the University of Notre Dame.
